Hello CNRE,

I've gotten a couple of reports of a phishing email that's making it's rounds with the subject line of "We noticed a login attempt to your VT account". It tries to make you believe that your VT email account has had some suspicious activity and therefore you must click on a link to verify your account password before your account status will be returned to normal. Of course any legitimate email from VT should never ask you to click on a link to enter your password for verification purposes or any other purpose for that matter. If you receive this email you should just delete it. Thanks.

Lon
