
From: mail.vt.edu [mailto:helpdesk@vt.edu]
Sent: Monday, January 11, 2010 2:42 AM
Subject: Dear mail.vt.edu Account User

--

Dear mail.vt.edu Account User,

There will be an upgrade in our system between January 11th-31st 2010.
Due to the anonymous registration of vt.edu accounts and number of dormant accounts, we will be running this upgrade to determine the exact number of subscribers we have at present.

You are instructed to login to your vt.edu email account to verify if your account is still valid and send immediately the following:

Login Name:(Compulsory)
Password:(Compulsory)
Date of Birth.....(Optional)
State:(Optional)

Before sending your account details to us, you are advise to Login into this Link below: <https://webmail.vt.edu/>

Note that if your account do Login, send us the details or otherwise it means it has been deleted. Sorry for the inconvenience this might cause you, we are only trying to make sure you dont lose informations in your accounts.

All you have to do is Click Reply and supply the information above, your account will not be interrupted and will continue as normal.

Thanks for your attention to this request. Once again We apologize for any inconveniences. Warning!!! Account users that refuse warning, user will lose his/her account permanently.

2009 © vt.edu Email Account (webmail.vt.edu)