Subject: Security Alert: Highly Critical Update for the Mac
Date: Friday, June 24, 2011 11:53:54 AM
Importance: High

Hello CNRE,

This one is for Mac users only. Apple has just released an update for OS X. This one patches 27 “Highly Critical” vulnerabilities so I suggest that everyone perform a “Software Update...” from the Apple menu ASAP. Note that it will require a restart. Thanks. Lon.
