

The Following Sites All Have Information On The Different Scams Online

Address	Brief Description
http://www.scamwatch.gov.au	This site has a lot of easy to understand information about the various scams doing the rounds.
https://www.moneysmart.gov.au/scams	The Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) has their MoneySmart website that has a section on scams.
http://www.ftc.gov	The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) site has scam information. It is written in governmentese so you may need to translate, but nonetheless some good information.
https://www.fbi.gov/scams-and-safety/on-the-internet	This FBI page has information on some of the newer scams.
https://www.usa.gov/scams-and-frauds	This internet fraud page provides information on where to report fraud as well as some general information.